

2024 Homelessness Point-in-Time Count

On October 23 2024, there were 2,952 people experiencing homelessness. During the survey period, 2595 valid surveys were collected.

Demographics of people experiencing homelessness

56% identified as male.

identified as female.

included responses for trans-women, trans-man, and non-binary.

of respondents were between the ages of 25 to 49 years old.

of respondents identified as gay, lesbian, bi-sexual or other sexual orientation.

of respondents identifying as 2SLGBTQQIA+ were under 25 years old.

56% of respondents identified as racialized.

of respondents identified as Indigenous.

Of respondents identified as former military or RCMP. Of these, 43% identified as Indigenous.

42%

of respondents came to Canada as an immigrant, refugee, or refugee claimant. Of these, 56% have been in Canada less than one year; 20% for more than five.

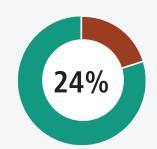

Locations where people experience homelessness of respondents stayed overnight in the shelter system.

of respondents identified being unsheltered or living in an encampment.

of respondents stayed in a transitional housing program.

of respondents were staying in either a public health or correction system.

Experiences of homelessness of respondents were chronically homeless (>180 days in the past 12 months).

of respondents were accompanied by children.

of respondents reported being in foster care or youth group homes.

Services requested by those experiencing homelessness

49%

of respondents indicated a need for 46%

of respondents were between the ages of 25 to 49 years old.

supporting housing services.

of respondents identified a need for of respondents identified a need for food security supports.

mental health supports.