

Note from the mayor

It's that incredible time of year when so many events, festivals and attractions entertain residents and highlight what our beautiful city has to offer. For over two decades, Doors Open Ottawa has become an annual tradition that so many residents and visitors anxiously await every first weekend in June.

The 2024 edition of Doors Open Ottawa will take place on the weekend of June 1 and 2. It's a unique opportunity to get a behind-the-door look at the many iconic and historic buildings that many of us walk, cycle or drive by every day and have always wondered what it looks like inside. Some of the buildings include Chaudière Falls, The Supreme Court of Canada, The Gladstone Theatre, Diefenbunker: Canada's Cold War Museum and many more.

In addition to the in-person tours, Doors Open Ottawa is continuing to have virtual offerings as well – which allows residents to tour some of the buildings on their electronic devices.

Adding a new note to one of our City's favourite events, this year's theme is Music in Our Nation's Capital and will highlight venues like The Ottawa Art Gallery, Lisgar Collegiate Institute, and Arts Court. Music is a living history book and, just like the brick and mortar of a building, it preserves the stories and traditions of our city for future generations.

So, I personally invite you, your family and your friends – even those out-of-town – to take part in Doors Open Ottawa 2024 on June 1 and 2, to explore and celebrate Ottawa's architecture, history and culture.

If you plan to go for the in-person tours, take advantage of the free Doors Open Ottawa shuttle or transit and O-Train Line 1 for easy and convenient travel. Also, be sure to also explore the surrounding neighbourhoods to see what they have to offer – such as local shops and dining establishments.

Whether you visit online or in-person, I hope you enjoy Doors Open Ottawa 2024. And I extend my appreciation and my best wishes to Doors Open Ottawa for a successful event this year and in the many years to come.
