City of Ottawa Cultural Funding

Through its Cultural Funding and Awards Programs, the City of Ottawa annually supports the creation, production and presentation of arts, festival, fair and heritage activities undertaken by individuals and not-for-profit professional organizations, as well as, community and amateur groups. The wide range of programs funded by the City creates opportunities for awareness and appreciation of the arts and culture in our community for everyone.

Direct funding to cultural organizations is the most cost-effective way to ensure the delivery of quality cultural activities to the community. Annual income/expense studies of the local, non-profit cultural sector from 2006 to 2010 show the direct leveraging effect of one municipal dollar of investment to be in the range of $6.28 to $11.70.<sup>1</sup>

In 2012, City Council approved the Renewed Action Plan for Arts, Heritage and Culture, a six year strategy (2013-2018) that recommends additional investment to help make local cultural organizations more sustainable, thus attracting talent, tourists and business. “Culture plays a central role in cities, contributing positively to economic indicators, social cohesion measures, environmental initiatives, quality-of-life, prosperity, happiness and health.”<sup>2</sup>

The City of Ottawa’s Cultural Funding and Awards Programs are assessed through a peer review process. Professionals representing specific disciplines and other individuals who are knowledgeable and active in the arts, heritage, festivals or fairs communities are involved in the assessment of applications and allocation of funds.

In 2014, the Cultural Funding Support Section managed 501 funding and awards submissions, held 34 juries and used 7 independent assessors, that resulted in 310 funding allocations.

Pilot Program for Youth Training Initiatives

As part of the City of Ottawa's Renewed Action Plan for Arts, Heritage and Culture in Ottawa (2013 – 2018), Strategy 1, Celebrate Ottawa's Unique Cultural Identity and Provide Access to Culture for All, Action 4, Nurture and Empower Ottawa's Youth.

This Pilot Program was established to provide incentives to existing cultural organizations to develop and provide training opportunities, internships, apprenticeships and work placement programs for youth; and to promote existing initiatives that foster youth awareness around careers in culture. The Program aims to provide supplementary project funding to professional cultural organizations currently receiving operating funding from the City of Ottawa who provide professional training opportunities for youth aged 18-25. The Pilot Program is currently under review.

Rich Little Endowment Fund for the Performing Arts

The Rich Little Endowment Fund was designed to assist young performers in the continuation of pre-professional training in the performing arts (dance, theatre and music).

In 2014, three local arts training organizations with solid track records of providing pre-professional arts training to young adults were invited to act as third-party recommenders in a partnership approach to award funding. Each organization selected two to three deserving students to receive grants through the Rich Little Endowment Fund.

Firestone Collection of Canadian Art Management Agreement

Originally established by Ottawa residents O.J. and Isobel Firestone in the early 1950s, the Firestone Collection of Canadian Art is a significant collection of works that spans the modern period (1900-1980). In 1972, the Firestone family donated their collection to the Ontario Heritage Foundation.

In 1992, the Foundation transferred ownership of this collection to the City of Ottawa with custodianship given to the Ottawa Art Gallery.

The Ottawa Art Gallery receives a purchase of service grant each year to care for, manage and exhibit the City-owned Firestone Collection of Canadian Art.
