Dear Mr. Large:

I am providing to you this letter to support the review of your financial transactions in relation to your election campaign.

I have reviewed the transactions as defined in your bank statements, and have reviewed your spending transactions to the end of the campaign period as at December 31, 2018.

I certify the expenses incurred are accurate and reflect the cost associated with running the campaign. I also have verified the campaign contributions.

My review has been conducted in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices.

Should you have any questions, please get in touch.

Best regards
